A MODERN "BLUEBEARD."

From the Northfield (Minn.) Enterprise.

Dr. Duvall is the man who figured so conspicuously last fall in the city of Owatonna. His manner of treatment was not by the use of medicines, but by manipulations, or stroking the affected part with the hands, and in this way he advertised to cure diseases of all descriptions. After he had been there for nearly three weeks, the business men were satisfied that he was an impostor and a scoundrel of the blackest dye, whereupon some seventy five leading men of the city signed a request asking him to leave as they were satisfied that he was obtaining money under false pretences.—After the publication of this request, with the names attached, in the Owatonna Journal, a division arose with regard to the matter—those easily duped and the marvellous, on the side of Duvall, and the intelligent and sound minded against him. A few days after this he left the Arnold House, and took up lodgings at the house of Mr. Sterling, as they were his warmest friends, probably from two causes: one through sympathy, and the other from a cure said to have been effected by him on Mrs. Sterling. He stayed there some two or three weeks, and then married a sister of Mrs. Sterling, who was living with her at the time. Soon after this they left for Rochester, and practised there his humbuggery for a number of weeks, and then left for some other towns easterly.

The first we heard of him after leaving Rochester was at Janesville, Wisconsin, which was about the 1st of April. After being at the public house for a few days, he and his wife retired for the night as usual, well and in good spirits. About two o'clock, A. M., he gave the alarm that his wife was very sick, and on going into his room she lay in her bed cold and dead.—There being suspicions of something wrong, the citizens concluded that they would take out the stomach and send it to Chicago for examination, and the chemists reported back that large quantities of strychnine were found in it, and some in particles that were not yet dissolved. Duvall was then arrested and lodged in jail. Some two weeks ago the grand jury found a bill of indictment against him for murder, and he was brought into court and pleaded not guilty. The case was then laid over for trial at the next court for Rock county, and he was remanded to jail. Since his confinement we learn that this is his fifth wife, and all the others have died in the same mysterious manner. It is reported that his wives are to be disinterred and their stomachs examined.

From the News and Farmer.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—As you are giving advice to farmers, perhaps you will not object to my "pickings up" by the wayside, for experience is the test of all things at last. Mine is the experience of a successful farmer. In the first place I will give you my treatment for

THE HOG CHOLERA.

"In 1861 or 1862," says another farmer, "I lost nearly 100 hogs by cholera: when one commenced ailing, I looked upon it as dead. Again this winter it attacked them, and I thought I would try what virtue there was in turpentine. I gave one pint of turpentine in one week to fifteen head of hogs; gave it in slop at different times through the week. They all lived and did finely, and I see no more signs of cholera. I think from the way the turpentine acted, that one half the quantity I gave in that length of time would have been sufficient." This agrees with my own experience, though it be limited. I have lost some hogs by cholera. The last experiment by me proved a success. The hog was so far exhausted by the disease that I could walk to him, and take hold of him. I thought him gone, but concluded to experiment a little. I took a small quantity of epsom salts, castor oil, turpentine, and lard; put these ingredients into a pint cup, filled two-thirds full of water, and warmed it over the coals until all was well mixed. I then drenched the hog with one-half, and gave the other half by injection. He was well in a day or two. I have faith in turpentine.

APPLE TREE WORMS.

Don't burn out these pests. If your trees are young, you will kill the tops. But mix well a pint of new soap with a pailful of moderately strong lye. Apply with a broom to the trunk and larger limbs. This will not only destroy the worms, but make the tree grow.

SORE THROAT.

Red pepper, steeped in cider, is a good preventive, and a certain cure for putrid sore throat.

HALIFAX.

HALIFAX, Co., N. C., June 2, 1869.

A STRANGE LUNATIC—HE FANCIES HIMSELF THE SUPREME BEING, AND IMAGINES THAT HE HAS A MISSION TO KILL HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN.

[From the Adrian (Mich.) Times.]

We have already briefly alluded to the case of Mr. James Van Housen, who is deranged apparently from religious excitement. On a recent visit we found him laboring under apparently great excitement, and manifesting a great repugnance to the presence of those who had formerly been his most cherished friends, accusing them of being demons, evil spirits, and deadly enemies of his. The supposed dereliction of his friends appeared to cause him great grief, and his eyes were rarely free from tears, which sometimes streamed down his cheeks in torrents. In his apparently calmer moments he stated that he was God, that his voice was the voice of God, and he warned those of his friends that he permitted to approach him to repent of their sins. He also asserted that he was a medium; that he could see spirits all around the by standers, good spirits around some and evil ones around others. This morning he announced his determination to wash himself, and stripped himself and washed in a large tub of water. He is imbued with the idea that he has been commanded to kill his wife and child, calls them his lambs, and says they will soon be with him in glory. His wife cannot go near him, and he sometimes goes through the house in search of her, saying that he must kill her. Mr. Van Housen's parents reside in Chatauqua County, New York. They have been sent for, and are expected soon. On their arrival steps will probably be taken to secure the unfortunate man. Certainly he should be secured and at once.

INSANE FREAK OF THE EMPRESS CHARLOTTE.

The French journals tell a painful story. A few days back, a lady, elegantly dressed, and wearing many diamonds, drove up to the house of a gentleman at Enghien, a village near Paris, and presenting herself as the Queen of Spain, said that she desired to rent his house, and wished to be allowed to visit it. He proceeded to show her over it, but her manner was strange, and after awhile she addressed him as "Sire." He naturally came to the conclusion that she was a lunatic, but was embarrassed as to what he should do. Presently, however, two well dressed men arrived. The lady at first started on seeing them, but followed them quietly, and they took her away.—They told the gentleman that she was a very great lady, that her mind was affected, and that she had escaped from Paris, on her way to the Pyrenees, where she had been ordered by her physicians. The gentleman subsequently learned that she was no less a personage than the sister of the King of the Belgians, the sister-in-law of the Emperor of Austria, the cousin of the Queen of England—she was the widow of Maximilian, Emperor of Mexico. She is, it appears, hopelessly mad.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.
Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!
The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.
Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,
CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.
THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.
Being situated in the mountainous part of the State in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.
The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.
The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.
Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.
FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.
A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC
Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.
Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CANTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.
The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.
As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

ROBERT SOUTTER, OF GRANVILLE COUNTY,
realizing the importance of spreading the growth of Wheat in this County; and the farmers, knowing so well the absolute necessity of supplying themselves at an early period with "Seed Wheat" of the finest quality, ready to plant in the Fall, the undersigned takes this early method of inviting applications from farmers, for what they may require to plant next Fall, of the very "Select Seed Wheat" which he expects to deliver at moderate prices, from the crop growing now on his "Oakland Farm" near Townesville, in this County.
This Wheat was planted last Fall, with Guano, of seed selected in Baltimore with great care by my predecessor, Mr. Chas. H. K. Taylor, who paid $3,25 for it there. It has had the advantage of a heavy top-dressing in Spring of Chicago bone Fertiliser, and is now very promising.
Like the good Sorghum Seed which I have offered to the farmers of Granville, I hope the orders for my "Seed Wheat" may be equally attractive, to absorb all that I can expect to spare of it.
Address me at Kittrell's Springs, or Mr. Thos. W. Taylor, at Oakland Farm.

THURSDAY, JUNE 24, 1869.

ELECTIONS IN AUGUST.

On the first Thursday in August next, elections will be held in several counties and districts, as ordered by the Governor, to supply vacancies in the General Assembly, and to elect township officers in eighty counties of the State. These are important elections and should be fully prepared for by the people.

The great curse of the State, is Radical legislation and the election of incompetent and dishonest officers. These are found in every department from the highest to the lowest. The magistracy, sheriffs, and constables, in many instances, are wholly disqualified. Ignorant, vindictive towards the better classes of society, and imbued with the spirit of peculation and selfishness, they seek the good of no one but themselves and are utterly reckless of the future welfare of the State.

Much depends for the security and peace of society upon the intelligence, the virtue and promptness of the magistracy. If the Justices of the Peace are wise and good men, much irritation, litigation and lawlessness will be avoided.

We therefore urge the people to interest themselves in the August elections. Support no man for office who is not honest and capable. Bring out the best men as candidates. Generally those who are most anxious for office are least fit. It is eminently so at the present time. We urge you to select competent, honest and true men, who are opposed to the misrule and ruin of Radicalism. Vote for no man who supports secret oath-bound political organizations, whether they be Heroes of America, Union Leagues, Grand Army of the Republic, Ku Klux or what not. Such associations are dangerous to republican institutions and to the Republic. Down with them, and vote only for good and true men.

GREENSBORO' FEMALE COLLEGE.—We learn from a friend who is cognizant of the facts, that at a meeting of the Trustees of this once flourishing institution, held in Greensboro' this week, a plan was agreed on for rebuilding the College at an early day. By this plan it is confidently expected that an amount of funds, in addition to what is already pledged, will be raised, in a short time, sufficient to rebuild the central portion of the old College, and put it in complete condition for the accommodation of pupils. The friends of the enterprise are thoroughly aroused to the importance and necessity of the work, and the plan they have adopted cannot fail, we think, to meet the approval and enlist the hearty co operation of all interested in the rebuilding of this once flourishing school.

NEGRO MECHANICS.—The action of the Printers' Union Convention assembled at Albany some two weeks ago, in regard to the employment of the negro, Douglas, on the Public Printing in Washington, and the more recent action of the Bricklayers' Union in discharging six members for working with colored bricklayers in the Washington Navy Yard, are facts significant of the Northern sentiment in regard to negro association and negro competition, which is becoming, daily, stronger and more manifest. One of the great impediments to the immigration of Northern laborers into the Southern States is the competition they must necessarily enter into with the freedmen here. With all their profound love of the negro, they are indisposed to stand side by side with him in the printing office, the brick yard, or anywhere else.

MR. REVERDY JOHNSON'S ACCOUNTS.

The accounts of Mr. Reverdy Johnson, ex Minister to England, were audited a few days ago at the Treasury Department. His telegraph bill for the three months ending June 31st, amounted to $980 in gold This was exclusive of the large bill which was presented some time ago for cable telegraphing in reference to the celebrated protocol which the Senate rejected, and which has been paid by Baring Brothers on the order of State Department. Mr. Johnson's contingent expenses during the same period, amounted to $1,567, which is considered moderate. The contingent expenses of Minister Dix, at Paris, for a similar period, amounted to $2,900. The comparison of both items will show that Mr. Johnson was not, after all, so very extravagant.—Dispatch to the New York Times.

A THRILLING STORY.—Three little children of Mr. Crouse, says the Lynchburg Virginian, of the 22d, attempted to cross the railroad bridge over the Blackwater, on Sunday evening. When nearly over, they heard a train coming and attempted to run back, thinking that it came from the west. But in that they were mistaken, and the train came on the bridge before they could get off. The oldest, a girl, seized the youngest child and jumped from the bridge down an embankment eighteen or twenty feet high. The other, a little boy, clung with his hands to the bridge until the train had passed, and then fell to the ground and rolled down a declivity of some eighty or ninety feet. His head was badly cut and bruised, but his injuries are not serious.—The escape of the little ones is almost miraculous."

The late Mr. Thackeray had a nose of most peculiar shape, as may be seen by his portrait. The bridge was very low, and the nostrils extremely well developed. On one occasion, at a party where Douglas Jerrold was present, it was mentioned that Mr. Thackeray's religious opinions were unsettled, and that a lady of his acquaintance was doing her best to convert him to Romanism. "To Romanism !" exclaimed Jerrold. "Let us hope she'll begin with his nose."

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.

Opinion delivered by Chief Justice Chase, June 19th, 1869, in case of John Jay Anderson vs. James M. Harriss and the Bank of Cape Fear.

This is a suit in Equity by the plaintiff, a citizen of Kentucky, against the defendants, who are citizens of North Carolina. The substance of the case is, that Anderson, having sold some mules to Harriss, received his bonds for the price, and deposited them in the Bank of Cape Fear for collection, late in 1860, or early in 1861.—Subsequently, the Bank received partial payments, which were transmitted to Anderson. The rebellion broke out soon afterwards, and there were no further payments until November, 1862, when the balance on the first bond was paid. The second bond of $450, and interest, were paid in full early in 1863. These payments were made in Confederate notes, and the bonds were surrendered to Harris.

The bill charges that there was collusion between the banks and Harris, in this attempt to satisfy the bond by payment in Confederate money, and prays that the defendant may be compelled to satisfy the debt due from Harris. The bill does not allege that Harris is insolvent, and this charge of collusion is denied by the answer, and not supported by proof.

There is no doubt that the bank was constituted agent for collection by the plaintiff, and it is not denied that its duties as such were faithfully fulfilled until after the commencement of the civil war. The agency of the bank was not terminated by the breaking out of hostilities. The bank might, indeed, have declined to act further under its agency, and might have retained the bonds for delivery to the plaintiff; but, if it acted at all, it was bound to act with care and diligence. In our opinion, the receipt of Confederate notes, in payment of a debt due to a citizen of a State adhering to the National Government, was not the exercise of such diligence.

Such receipt, however, did not discharge the debtor from his debt. The bonds, though paid in form, and delivered to him as paid, by the Agent, were not paid in fact. He still remained liable for the full amount of the debt. Nothing could discharge him except ratification of the acts of the agent, or voluntary release by the creditor, or actual payment in lawful money.

No discharge, such as is here described, is alleged. The evidence is that the creditor disavowed the unauthorized acts of the Agent, and insisted on payment in full.

But, we think that he could not disavow those acts, and recover damages for consequential loss without proof of such loss—if the debtor is not discharged, and is able to pay the debt, and no loss has arisen to the creditor from the acts of the Bank, it is difficult to see how the creditor can establish any right as against the corporation. Rights and remedies as between the Bank and the debtor are matters between them, and not between the Bank and the creditor, unless loss has arisen to the creditor. But the bill contains no allegation of the insolvency of the debtor, or of other loss.

In the present State of the pleadings, therefore, the particular relief prayed for in the bill can not be granted. But since the Bank is undoubtedly liable to the debtor for the value of the Confederate notes, received from him, and the debtor remains liable to the creditor for the full amount of the bonds, we think that to avoid multiplicity and circuity of action, under the general prayer for relief, and upon the whole case, a decree may be made for the payment by the Bank to the plaintiff of the amount due to Harriss, and against Harriss for the balance remaining due after crediting the full amount upon the bonds.

If the plaintiff is not content, with such a decree, his bill, in its present form must be dismissed; but, if he chooses, he may amend by allowing the insolvency of Harriss and loss of his debt through the unauthorized action of the Bank.

INTERESTING ABOUT THE BIBLE.

It is not known by all, that the very first work ever printed after the invention of the art of printing, was the Holy Bible. It was about the middle of the fifteenth century—between the years 1450 and 1455. It was the Latin version first translated by Jerome, and called the Vulgate, because soon after he translated it, it became very popular among the vulgus or common people. In the year 1555, after many editions had been issued in various languages on the continent, the first edition of the New Testament in the English tongue was translated by William Tyndale. He left England on account of persecution and finished his great work and had it printed in Germany. The King of England and Cardinal Wolsey and Sir Thomas More tried to induce him to return, their object being to carry him to the stake. He was too cautious and escaped them—His associate in the work of translating, John Frith, did return and was martyred for his devotion to the truth. Tyndale was at length caught near Antwerp by an emissary of King Henry and executed on the charge of heresy.

The following literal version of the Lord's Prayer taken from this first English Translation is interesting as a specimen of our tongue in that day, showing the vast change for the better through which it has passed within the last three centuries:

"Oure Father which arte in heven, halowed be thy name. Let thy kingdom come. Thy wyll be fulfilled, as well in erth, as hit ys in heven. Geve vs this daye oure dayly breade. And forgeve vs oure treaspases, even as we forgeve them which treaspas vs. Leede vs not into temptacion, but delyvre vs from yvell. Amen."

The first English edition of the whole Bible was published by Miles Coverdale, in the year 1535. Even in those few years the orthography had passed through favorable changes, though still very awkward and quaint. The following verse—Gen. 29th chapter and 32nd verse—is taken literatim from his translation:

"But when the Lorde sawe that Lea was nothinge regarded, he made her fruiteful and Rachel barren. And Lea conceaved and bare a sonne whom she called Ruben, and sayde; the Lorde hath loked upon mine adversitie. Now wyll my husbande love me."

GEN. GRANT'S MODESTY.—Gen Grant has lately made a speech of seven lines' length in Boston. In the course of it he use the word me twice, I twice, and my once.—Everything is about me the wonderful Grant! The only thing which he can find to admire in Massachusetts is the fact that it is a State which has done so much for his support—that has given him whatever position he has attained, and where he has received such a hearty welcome in other days. He did not see Bunker Hill Monument, or Lexington, or Concord; he only saw the reflection of himself!—Cincinnati Enquirer.

At a recent performance of the opera "L'Africaine" in Stockholm, the ship was made to rock so naturally that the prima donna became violently sea sick.

AGRICULTURE—HOG RAISING.

HON. JOSIAH TURNER, JR.,—Dear Sir:—I am glad to see you manifest so much interest in the domestic concerns of our people, and the promotion of the great object of Agriculture. There can be no permanent improvement in the pecuniary and economic interests of North Carolina, that does not have for its basis, the improvement of Agriculture. Our soil is the great laboratory, out of which must come the future wealth of the State. All other schemes of improvement, while they may materially aid agriculture, can only be secondary to it and should be made subservient to its promotion.

The eminently practical letter of Mr. Robert Bingham, of Mebaneville, which you copied the other day from a Farmers' Journal, was an excellent contribution to the interests of Agriculture in the State, and I hope to see it followed by articles and letters of the same character from all the farmers of the State, to our State journals. I would suggest to our planters when they write for the information the masses to be always practical and sufficiently specific. They must not take it for granted that their readers can always supply omissions which they may make. Mr. Bingham, for instance, in speaking of the value of Baugh's Fertilizer was not particular to designate the character of his soil, and the application of it to a particular class of soils.—The precise nature and condition of the soil, must be understood, in order to use, judiciously, the various kinds of fertilizers now in use. Many are led by the high wrought descriptions of particular fertilizers to purchase them, without knowing in what quantity and when to apply them, and by consequence a failure results in bitter denunciation of the particular kind of fertilizer used to no profit, and often of the Agents vending them, for the lack of the necessary information which vendors of fertilizers ought to furnish. If a man has a good fertilizer to sell, he ought to know all about it, when, and where and how much, and under what circumstances it ought to be applied. Mr. B. also in speaking of his fine crops of potatoes, failed to say what kind of potatoes they were. Northern people and our Western people when speaking of potatoes always mean, Irish potatoes; while an Eastern North Carolina planter always when speaking of a potatoe crop, means the sweet potatoe; but if he means the Irish potatoe, he always puts the prefix to it.

But I am digressing entirely from my subject. Mr. Bingham in speaking of his hog raising remarked, if I remember correctly, that every 100 pounds of pork raised by the Alamance planter in the ordinary way, cost him $15. This would surprise the hog raisers of our Western and Eastern Counties, amazingly. I once heard a successful hog raiser in Gates County say, that he never raised a 100 pounds of pork that cost him over $3 per hundred. He was a very successful pork and bacon producer, and I understood him to say that a barrel of corn was all that was necessary to raise a pig to weigh 100 pounds. The average price of corn in that day and that section was about $3 per barrel. He said that corn was both the proper food and medicine of hogs. If his hogs were at any time afflicted, he at once considered that they had been eating bad food. Never give a hog rotten corn, this he said produced disease; nor did he feed corn to hogs in the ear or grain, but he always ground it, and if possible cooked it, and always found it the best medicine for hogs. He made large use of potatoes, squashes, pumpkins, turnips, and other vegetables, but always cooked them. Dry, raw peas he considered positively damaging to hogs or animals of any kind. I presume if Mr Bingham feeds Irish potatoes to hogs, he always has them cooked.

I consider the disposition of our farmers to quit raising hogs, and rely upon the unwholesome and badly flavored Western and Baltimore bacon and Northern pork, an error and a misfortune. The most of our farmers largely over-estimate the cost of making their own bacon. I have no doubt that many manage them so badly, they cost enormously, but hogs properly trained and fed, timely penned and cared for, will cost far less than many imagine. Besides, if they are penned early, they contribute largely in increasing the stock of valuable manure on a farm.

On a recent visit to Rufus W. Jones, Esq., of this County, I learned a fact about fattening hogs, which I think worthy to communicate. He showed me a patch in his garden, covering about two squares in our ordinary gardens, which he last year planted in the long green, running squash, with rows of corn between; from which he assured me he supplied his family with squashes, and kept sixteen hogs almost seal fat during the entire summer until frost came in October. A small amount of corn until killing time was sufficient to give him the fattest meat he ever killed.—The squashes were cut up and given to the hogs. I have no doubt they would have been much better, if they had been cooked. He was so well pleased with his experiment, he is repeating it the present year.—He considers them far preferable to, and cheaper than peas, potatoes, or pumpkins. I have no doubt of it. I hope our farmers will rather improve their stock of hogs, sheep and cattle, and keep up the rearing of stock, than to abandon it. We are not tired of old North Carolina hams.

W. E. PELL.

Raleigh, June 1869.

A CRAZY FRENCHMAN CUTS OFF HIS DAUGHTER'S HEAD.

A shocking murder was committed recently at Levallois Perret, France, by a lunatic, on his own daughter, aged eighteen. The man, a dyer, named Dubois, residing at Clichy, had only a few days ago come out of an asylum where he had been for three months under treatment. Having expressed a desire to take a walk, he started with the young woman in the direction of the Seine, and while crossing a field of wheat bordering the river, he took a knife from his pocket and cut her throat. The cries of the daughter were heard by two workmen at a factory close by, and they hastened to the spot, but arrived too late to save the victim, as the father had almost severed the head from her body. The murderer then ran to the Seine and threw himself into the water, but on seeing a boat approaching he swam ashore and was secured. Dubois replied in an incoherent manner to the questions put to him, and was evidently insane; he had besides no motive for hatred against his daughter.—When in custody the gendarmes had some difficulty in preserving him from the anger of the crowd.

HYDROPHOBIA.—A shocking case of hydrophobia has just ended fatally. About six months ago Mr. William Matise, aged thirty-eight, residing at Thirty first and Girard avenue, was bitten by a dog afflicted with the rabies. Immediately he secured medical aid, and no signs of the dreadful disorder showing itself he forgot the occurrence. On Saturday the symptoms of the malady manifested themselves, and so violent did he become that it was thought advisable to remove him to Ninth district station house. When nearing the police headquarters Matise breathed his last. The Coroner was notified and an inquest will be held upon the body to-day.—Philadelphia Age, June 21.

GRANT'S COUSINS.

President Grant, about two months ago, appointed to office a couple of his vulgar cousins, named Hudson, residents of Iowa. He appointed one of them, Silas A. Hudson, Minister to Guatamala. Silas was at Washington during the inauguration, and, after fixing all things there to suit himself and his distinguished cousin, he returned to his home in Burlington, where he proceeded to set the rest of the country in order, Iowa in particular. One of Silas' first operations was to write the following letter to Gen. Weaver, Assessor of Internal Revenue in the First Iowa District. Our readers will see that the great man although suffering from nuralgy and rumatism, was aware that the affairs of the political world were upon his shoulders:

BURLINGTON, Iowa, May 10, 1869.

Hon. J B. Weaver:

MY DEAR SIR: On the first day of my arrival in Washington I secured from Gen Grant, yours and Belknap's retention, and the right to supervise such changes of officers, as in my best judgment would prove beneficial to the service. I let McCrary know this and turned over to him that duty for all the counties in this district but Des Moines. I have only ordered one change here so far, wishing to take time to make others advisedly. You will, therefore, not make any change here without first consulting myself, and if you have sent forward any name recall it until you see or hear from me.

It is very natural that Gen. Grant should trust this duty to me, and look to me for its proper discharge. Please answer me immediately. I am suffering too severely with nuralgy and rumetism to be able to write more at this time.

Very Truly Yours,
SILAS A. HUDSON.

Strange as it may seem, this letter failed to impress the Assessor of the First District with a sense of the vast and awful consequence of Grant's cousin. The Assessor, who undoubtedly knew both Grant and the cousin, replied as follows:

BLOOMFIELD, June 8, 1869.

Hon. Silas A. Hudson, Burlington, Iowa:

SIR: Your letter of the 25th ult., is received. The appointment you ask will not be made.

Your insolent and dictatorial letter of the 10th has been laid before the President and the Commissioner.

I consider it a gross insult to myself and a libel upon General Grant, whom you affect to be able to control because of your consanguinity.

I scorn your pretended influence, and regard your attempt to control my office as an effort to involve me in dishonor.

I am, sir,
J. B. WEAVER, Assessor

We have not heard the result, but the presumption is that the Assessor has been removed, for it is not to be supposed that Grant would suffer his dear cousin to be thus talked to with impunity.

But now in all seriousness we ask whether the American people have not cause to blush and hang their heads at having a President who bestows upon such relations as this Silas A. Hudson not only high office but the prerogative of partitioning out other offices. Who can read the letters above without a feeling of disgust toward the precious pair of cousins, Grant and Hudson?

Nepotism, God knows, is bad enough when practiced by a functionary whose family isn't made up of vain, pretentious, insolent, and arrogant fools. What sort of creature is this Silas A. Hudson to be a foreign Minister? What sort of a thing is he to have, before starting upon his mission, the distribution of all the officers of a great State?

We wonder if this wretched "thingomy," with his "nuralgy" and "rumetism," was guilty of falsehood in pretending that he was authorized by his cousin Grant to deal out all the Iowa officers according to his own pleasure. We don't think that he lied in the matter. If he did, why doesn't his cousin Grant remove the absurd and ridiculous rascal from the Guatemala Minister-ship?

A SAD STORY ABOUT A PIOUS YOUNG MAN.—The Amsterdam (Montgomery Co., N. Y.) Recorder tells the following sad story in regard to an apparently pious young man who flourished in that village some time ago under the assumed name of Frank Meibry: 'Previous to coming here he had been convicted at Elmira, N. Y., of murder, for shooting a United States military guard, and was sentenced to be shot, but the President commuted the sentence to imprisonment, and the unhung culprit broke jail and finally landed in Amsterdam. He left here under difficulties, and next turns up in Ithaca, where, upon a few days' courtship, he marries a beautiful and estimable girl whose name we give below. He was indicted for bigamy and tried at the Tompkins County Court last week. The following notice of his character we clip from the Ithaca Democrat: "People versus Leroy, alias Lawrence Sangris, indicted for bigamy. The defendant arraigned and pleaded guilty. Sentence, three years at Auburn.' After the sentence was pronounced, Shear addressed the Court for about ten minutes. Judge Van Valkenburg would have sent him for the full term had he known his previous character. The saddest part of the tale is yet to be told; for grief—deep grief—seized the wife (the second wife) of this young scapegallows, from the effects of which she died, as the following notice, clipped from the same paper, announces:

JACKSON.—In Ithaca, June 1, Kate M., daughter of George and Caroline Jackson, aged 25 years and 9 months.

CURIOUS MARRIAGE.—A LONG ENGAGEMENT.—A curious marriage took place in this town yesterday. The parties were engaged in Ireland nearly forty years ago—have continued so all along. The lady came to America and made this place her home. The gentleman entered the British army and was a soldier twenty-one years; has been in every part of the globe; has spent some years in Montana Territory, and last month left there and arrived here on Friday last, coming a distance of more than two thousand miles, claimed his affianced and was actually married. It is a remarkable instance of early, constant and successful love.—Greenville, S. C., (June 16,) correspondence Charleston Courier.

Miss Amanda J. Craig, who recently obtained a verdict for $100,000 damages in a suit for breach of promise against Mr. Sprague, at Wheaton Illinois, has returned to her home, in Newport, and is an applicant, it is understood, for reappointment to her old position as teacher in the public schools, which place she will no doubt get. Dr. J. G. Beck, also a citizen of Newport, who testified against Miss Craig, and who was sent to jail for contempt of court, is still in durance vile at Wheaton.

A soldier of the Tenth United States Infantry attempted suicide at Rock Island, Ill., on Thursday, by jumping from the steamboat into the river, because he was unable to "throw off" his half-breed wife, married in Minnesota, and now accompanying the battalion to Texas. The wretch being dragged out by the hair of his head, begged to be thrown in again.

DIED:

In Thomasville, N. C., June 6th, 1869, LULA VIRGINIA, daughter of M. and C. G. Shaw, aged 2 years 7 months and 2 days.

Also, in Thomasville, N. C., June 22nd, ERNEST PEACE, son of James A. and LUC. F. Leath, aged 1 year, 6 months and 21 days.

Also, at the same place, on the 24th inst., MARGARET MILLER infant daughter of Laura F. and J. M. Monie, aged three months and twenty-five days.

On the 3rd of June, 1869, JESSE IS, wife of William H Peed, aged 91 years.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cures them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and who should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

DON'T fail to attend the Concert at Tucker Hall to-night, given by the infant class of the Baptist Sunday School of this city.

WE learn that a colored woman, named Fanny Utley, residing in the Southwestern portion of the city, last evening, while running away from a dog which was pursuing her, fell, fracturing, badly, both bones of the right leg.

IN LUCK AGAIN.—Ah! what a delicious treat we have just enjoyed—a large dish of ice cream with saucers and spoons—enough for all of us and some for a friend—cake to match, from Blair, of the Yarborough House. Blair, the inimitable! It would have done him good to have seen us enjoying it; the sighs of satisfaction marking the gratitude of our hearts, while we blessed him at every mouthful we ate.

DOGS.—We alluded to the large increase of the quadruped branch of this species of animals in our City, on Tuesday, but the subject will bear repetition, because it is a matter affecting the city finances, as well as the peace and quiet of citizens. The owner of a dog that is of value as a guard to his premises, will willingly pay the tax on his poll, and all valueless dogs, that keep up a nightly howling and prowling about other people's premises, ought to be exterminated.

We expect to call down on our head the ire of the canines for alluding to them in this manner; indeed, one big, ugly-mugged, half-breed did walk into our sanctum, yesterday, and elevated his smeller at us, as much as to say, "Who is your informant in regard to the dogs of the city?" but walked out again on receiving a gentle hint, conveyed through the toe of a No 9; notwithstanding all which, we respectfully call the attention of the proper authorities to the subject of the "dog ordinance," and suggest the propriety of collecting the tax or suppressing the nuisance.

NOT HURT.—The man who walked out of the door of a third story in this city, yesterday morning, we are happy to say, was not injured in the slightest degree.—It seems he walked out very deliberately, on to the landing outside the door, down the entire flight of steps and into the dining room, without a bruise.

NO HORNS.—A very fine milk cow belonging to one of our citizens, returned from "the range" to her owner's lot last night, without the least sign of a horn on her head. The cow, we learn, is what is generally known as a "mulley," which will account for the fact.

PENITENTIARY.—The Penitentiary Committee has awarded the contract for poles for the stockade on the Penitentiary site, to Nathan Gurley, of Johnston county, who furnishes the poles, 8 inches mean diameter and 19 feet long at 72 cents each.

The contract for the lumber was awarded to Page and Ellington of Wake, at an average for the various classes, of about $14 per thousand.

The Committee will proceed at once to the erection of twelve log prison houses, one kitchen and one store house; the prisons to accommodate 120 inmates. The erection of the houses will be commenced as soon as practicable, under the superintendence of J. R. Harrison Esq.

SUPREME COURT.—The Court met pursuant to adjournment; all the Justices present. The following opinions of the Court were filed.

CHIEF JUSTICE PEARSON—Miller ex. Atkinson, from New Hanover County. The trust is declared to be valid.

BY READE, J.—Atkinson ex. Williams, from New Hanover County. Judgement reversed, and Judgment lien for defendant. Brooklus & Edwards ex. Evans, from Pitt County. Venire de novo awarded.

BY RODMAN, J.—Simpson ex. Simpson, from Union County. Judgment reversed. Johnson ex. Judd, from Harnett County. Judgment reversed.

BY DICK, J.—State ex. Allgood Locust and Hawkins, from Wilson County. Judgment overruled. Dos ex dem Gaines ex. Hays, from Cumberland County. Venire de novo awarded.

BY SETTLE J.—State ex. Palis, Pasquotank county. Error. The duty of maintaining a bastard child is not a debt, within the meaning of the law. But where the putative father refuses to give bond for maintenance, he may be imprisoned until he comply with the order of the Court—it being in the nature of contempt.

Parker ex. Flora, Gates county. Judgment affirmed. Case argued.

State ex. Nero Davis, Chatham county.—Attorney Gen. ral for State, R. W. York for Defendant.

Dixon, Dayidson & Co. ex. Pace, Chatham county. R. W. York for Plaintiff, F. F. Phillips for Defendant.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Court met pursuant to adjournment, Hon. G. W. Brooks presiding.

The morning was devoted to the call of the civil docket.

COMMODORE JAMES W. COOK, died in Norfolk, Va., on Monday night last, at the age of fifty seven years and ten months.—He was a native of North Carolina, and at an early age entered the United States' naval sevice, where he attracted the attention of the government by his marked ability, and at the commencement of the war had risen to the rank of Lieutenant in the Navy.

STATE NEWS.

ROWS IN G.—Our burg on Monday was the scene of several rows among the darkey population—men fighting women and women fighting men, and sometimes a little of both mixed up together. The police interfered and partial quiet was restored, though in one or two instances the hatchet was not buried.—Roanoke News.

ACCIDENTALLY POISONED.—We are pained to learn that a lamentable case of accidental poisoning occurred in Northampton county last week, a Mrs. James Long taking a dose of strychnine, administered through mistake, which resulted in her death in less than an hour. We did not learn the particulars of this sad affair.—Roanoke News.

APPOINTED TO ANNAPOLIS.—Young Ferdinand Ulrich, of this city, has received the appointment to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, through the exertions of Col. Heston, and left for the famed naval school on Monday morning.—Jour. of Commerce.

BEAR KILLED.—The freight train of the A. & N. C. Railroad, killed a bear of the largest size, near Havelock, on Friday night last. What brute was doing on the track is not known, though it is conjectured that he intended to dispute the passage of the train.—Jour. of Commerce.

RAISED HIS COLORS.—Mr. Jacob Lobb, the French Vice Consul in this city, yesterday caused the erection of a flag pole over his office, from which now floats the flag of the nation he represents.—Wil. Journal.

FIRE.—A fire broke out in the kitchen attached to the residence of Mr. Samuel Northrop, in Wilmington, on Tuesday night, destroying the kitchen and contents; loss $800. The dwelling was saved by the timely arrival of the steam and other fire engines.

IMPORTANT TO RETAIL DEALERS IN CIGARS.—An exchange under this caption contains the following important information to cigar retail dealers:

"Application having been made to Commissioner Delano for information whether the sale of cigars from glass cases is contrary to the revenue law, the Commissioner has replied that 'the law requires that they shall be sold in boxes or from boxes, stamped as prescribed by law.'"

According to this decision the practice which many adopt of transferring the cigars from stamped boxes to sliding drawers is in opposition to the true meaning of the law.

UNFORTUNATE RENCONTRE—ONE MAN BADLY CUTS ANOTHER.—We learn of a most unfortunate and probably tragical affair which occurred near Seaboard, in Northampton county, one evening in the latter part of last week. A dispute arose on the farm of Mr. John Ramsey, between Mr. Ramsey and a Mr. Marks, (the latter having been in the employ of Mr. R. for some time past,) in which hard words were used, resulting in a fight, during which Mr. Marks was severely cut with a knife in the hands of Mr. Ramsey, the unfortunate man having one eye cut out and the other severely injured. At last accounts it was thought that Marks might recover, though his wounds are of a very dangerous character.—We have not learned of any action being taken in the premises, nor do we know enough of the affair to state how far criminal the cutting of Mr. Marks may be considered.—Roanoke News.

A FUNNY GRANT APPOINTMENT.

The Savannah News tells some curious stories of Grant's new appointee to the Savannah post office, "Booby Gliff, a Massachusetts carpet-bagger. He engaged for an assistant an equally intelligent individual named Seely, and the two commenced business on Monday. The first transaction was as follows: "Mr. William Hone went to the post office to get two hundred dollars on money orders, and was paid four hundred dollars by Seely. He ascertained this after leaving the office, and returned and told Seely that he had made a mistake.—That worthy promptly replied that no mistakes were rectified. Mr. H. then sent for the postmaster, and told him the same that he told Seely, but he also refused to rectify mistakes. Mr. H. then told them he had been overpaid two hundred dollars, whereupon both of the post office parasites were willing, nay, extremely anxious to rectify. Mr. H. refused and went off. He was importuned several times after to refund, which he did yesterday, after having had considerable fun over it. The second transaction is thus reported. It is well known that the old red three cent postage stamps came in sheets with one hundred stamps on each, and were sold for three dollars. The new blue stamps are smaller than the old ones, and have one hundred and fifty on a sheet, making the value of each sheet four dollars and fifty cents. Cliff and Seely were so smart as not to count the number on each sheet, and guessing, with an intelligence marvelous in people so young, that they were the same in number as the old red ones, sold the sheets at $3 each—having lost $28 in one day by the shrewd plan.—This cheap rate was soon ascertained by our citizens, and a rush for stamps was made. Seely smelt a rat and counted the stamps, consequently stamps are now quoted at par. On yesterday, we learn that Seely sold 300 stamps at the rate of $1, and also overpaid $16 on a money order.

THE MASSACRE OF AN ENGLISH PARTY IN ABYSSINIA.

From further information received at Newport it appears that Mr. Powell was accompanied by a Mr. Maccree, a Scotchman, who also met with the same cruel fate as the others forming the party. In a communication, dated the 7th of May, Mr. West, the English Consul at Alexandria, writes to Mr. Maccree's brother, giving a short account of the progress of the party previous to the massacre. In this he states that Mr. Maccree had taken Mr. Powell to a rather dangerous part of the country, and it would have been better if they had gone in a different direction, where the party would have been safer, the chiefs being more friendly, and where equally as good sport in lion hunting might be obtained. Then the consul admits that information has just been received of the cruel murder of Mr. Powell, Mrs. Powell, their children, and Mr. Maccree, by the natives. Two Swiss missionaries are said to have brought the news to the British authorities, and preparations are in progress to start an expedition up the country in order, if possible, to obtain further particulars. This letter adds that unless prompt retaliation follows the brutal massacre the natives will take courage, and it will not be safe for any Englishman to visit the country. Mr. W. H. P. Jenkins, a brother of Mrs. Powell, is, it appears, about to go out to Alexandria, so as to make every possible inquiry respecting the sad affair.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Cuban affairs have never been the subject of consultation, though occasionally the theme of conversation in the Cabinet nor in the present aspect of affairs is official action probable. The government has no information that the opposing forces in Cuba ever met in open field, but that the little fighting that has been done has been nothing more than skirmishes. Operations are confined to a few inland points. In the view of the case no member of the Cabinet has expressed any desire or hinted at recognizing the belligerent rights of the Cubans.

The Spanish Minister has been informed that, while the government will enforce the neutrality laws, it and the people sympathize with the Cubans. The Spanish Minister has been placed in direct communication with attorneys and marshals, so that he may furnish them information enabling them to enforce instructions issued months ago to intercept the sailing of hostile vessels. The recent arrests were made on information furnished through Spanish sources, and were mainly attributable to open boastings of the Cubans of their success in landing men and arms.

There is no disagreement between Secretary Fish and Mr. Sumner regarding Minister Motley's instructions.

Gen. Dave Butterfield has been appointed Assistant Treasurer at New York.

James Watson Webb, late Minister to Brazil, telling Secretary Fish that the Brazilians have no more respect for us than for Hayti, suggests that we thrash them.

READ WHAT THE
HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES SAY OF THE

BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIJAH WARDT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

BE KIND TO THE ERRING.

Be kind to the erring, the humble, the meek,
'Tis the coward alone would trample the weak;
To know not how do pity the past they deplore—
In charity cover their sins evermore.

Be kind to the erring, the lowly, the sad;
Oft circumstance ruleth, whose chain driveth mad;
Ah! boast not thy virtue, but con thy heart o'er,
Communion with self maketh pride evermore.

Commune with thyself; think how reckless thou art,
Enriching thy coffers to wither thine heart;
Take warning by thousands on yonder dark shore
Remember, thy soul must exist evermore.

Cherish good for itself, nor measure thy gain;
Such motives are sordidly selfish and vain:
In deeds blessing all, and with heart gushing o'er,
Flowing on to the ocean of love ever more.

Religion is naught, all pretensions are vain,
If works are still wanting, ah! where is thy gain?
As bark cast away on some desolate shore,
As wreck on the deep, thou art gone evermore.

Thy days fleet away as a meteor's gleam;
Flashing bright for a moment, they fade as a dream;
Yea, dream though it be, yet on far-distant shore
Shall in thunders re-echo the past evermore.

As flower dost thou blossom, more thing of a day,
As breath of the dewup thou wilt vanish away;
Let life be thy motto this weary life o'er,
Then in sunshine of love wilt thou bask evermore.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,
PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers, and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so fuddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he looks into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of $1,000,000

NATIONAL

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled; and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,582 policies.

Amount insured,	$10,005,550.00
Total Premiums,	350,117.03

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 892

By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey,	693
" New England Mutual,	343
" Phœnix Mutual,	335
" Massachusetts Mutual,	312
" Equitable of New York,	277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.

In its 10th year,	$1,360 "
And in its 20th year,	2,842 "

this latter being 690 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

Sentinel.

PUBLISHED AT THE CAPITAL OF THE STATE,
Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES
WITHOUT LABOR.
THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.
This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.
A hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, placed upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the best blankets. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.
The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and cleansing the dirt WITHOUT LABOR OR FRICTION.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process
Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.
The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany the introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.
No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHERS, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.
